

Association of Policing and Crime Chief Executives

LGA Police and Crime Panels Training

13th July 2021

Siân Curley

Vice Chair of APAC₂E and

Chief Executive, Office of the PCC for Gwent

STRUCTURE

- Membership and Board
- Coordinator
- Networks
 - Strategy and Performance
 - Communications and Engagement
 - Learning and Development
 - Complaints and Casework
 - Criminal Justice
 - Commissioning
 - Governance and Legal
 - Fire and Rescue

OBJECTIVES

- Provide a network of support for Chief Executives and policing body staff in order to problem solve, share best practice and provide a forum for debate.
- Provide professional, technical, and procedural advice and support on governance and policy matters such as community safety, policing and fire services and criminal justice to PCCs (APCC, NPCC, Home Office, MOJ and others).
- Facilitate the professional development of Chief Executives and their teams

ACTIVITIES

- Supporting and contributing to APCC priorities and portfolios
- Professional Development
- Knowledge sharing and networking
- Development of Guidance
- Induction for new Chief Executives
- Informally, a sounding board

WORKING WITH PANELS

What does a good relationship look like?

- The Panel role is valued
- There have been good development of relationships and arrangements
- Value the key role played by Panel's Monitoring Officer and host authority
- Welcome panel sub-groups or Lead member arrangements
- Close links with Chair and Vice Chair

WORKING WITH PANELS

What does a good relationship look like?

- An understanding of scrutiny and support
- An understanding that OPCC resources are finite
- An OPCC involvement in Panel training
- A focus on PCC remit and outcomes rather than operational activity

ANY QUESTIONS?

